

BY COOPER
THE FLOOD

Drip drip the rain was pouring hard so Shrek and Kermit parents go to get supplies at so the next day there's no sign of there parents so they went searching still nothing. So they headed back. They go inside than it started to flood and thunder and the windows started to shattered. Glass went every where so they ran upstairs then a brick came flying through the wall. Ohh Shrek said. Then Kermit said ahhhh god!" Next an earthquake happened so they hid in a closet. They could hear objects crashing into the wall's so once they realised the rain stopped after one year so after another five months there was no more floods or water. They decided to go outside. So with all the destruction they go exploring and than it started to get late so they went home...

