

The Rain Won't Stop

By Galatia

Swoosh swash the rain and wind grabbed the windows and slammed them open. They all shattered. Then all the rain came rushing in. Then all the rain came rushing in. Max tried to call his mum, but the rain was too hard for her to hear him so she hung up. They tried to run to safety but everywhere was dangerous.

Suddenly a large bang hit the roof. The parents said "We both need to go get supplies."

"Can we come,"the kids asked

"NO,its to dangerous,"dad yelled.

"You guys stay together," mum said as they were walking out the door. Max and Lorretta didn't know what to do. A few hours passed by and there was no sign of their parents. The day passes by and Max woke up and he bounced with joy to see his parents, but they weren't there. On the other side of town was their parents stuck in the car but then "BANG" lightning hit the car. Both of their parents didn't survive. Then Max turned the TV on. "Breaking News two civilians have been killed."Their last names are Bobble if they are your family please report to city hall "

After two weeks of the rain it had stopped "Max get up the rain has stopped," Lorretta screamed. They ran outside with a smile ear to ear, but when they saw the huge mess their smiles changed to ear to ear to their jaw touching to floor. The mess was horrible, but they were happy that the rain stopped and that they were alive.

